

Into my heart, Into my heart,
Come into my heart Lord Jesus.
Come in I pray, Come in to stay,
Come into my heart Lord Jesus.

Now what are some of these sins that must be confessed and washed away in the precious blood of Jesus? Disobedience, lying, cheating, stealing, swearing, saying bad words, showing a bad temper, being rude and unkind, and many other sins too numerous to mention, that bring us more and more under the power of Satan and his kingdom of darkness.

Look at the cover picture and see how sweetly the Holy Spirit rests in the heart that is yielded to Him; and, do you know why a dove typifies the Holy Spirit? Because a dove is so gentle and unoffending; and Jesus wants us to be that way. But the Holy Spirit is more than gentle. He is the Spirit of grace and of power. He protects, and enables us to live holy clean lives that will glorify God, and bring us eternal rewards.

Would you like to open your heart right now to Jesus so His Holy spirit can come in? Then kneel down and tell Him so. You can say,

Dear Jesus please forgive me for being so bad, and please come in and make my heart so clean that Satan, that old serpent, won't be able to hide there anymore.

Now sign your name, date, and address below, and keep this little tract to remind you of the day when you opened your heart to Jesus.

If you do not now attend Sunday School, pray and ask Jesus to show you where to go to learn more about Him.

Write to the address below, and we will send you more tracts for children.

I am praying every boy and girl who reads this Gospel tract will really open their hearts to Jesus, and receive Him as their personal Saviour, and be able to sing sincerely this song:

Now I belong to Jesus,
Jesus belongs to me;
Not for the time on earth alone,
But for eternity.

I hereby testify that I do receive Jesus Christ as my personal Saviour, and will confess Him before others according to Matthew 10:32.

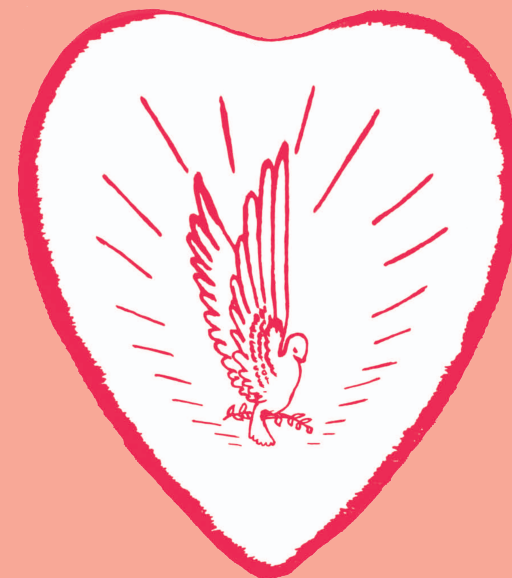

“Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven.”

Good News for Boys and Girls

Every boy or girl old enough to go to school and learn to read and write has already learned something about themselves. They have learned that they have a bad heart. They have found that it is often easier to do wrong than to do right. It seems that just what they have been told not to do, is what they want to do, and Oh how often they have disobeyed. God says all disobedience is sin, and sin brings us under the power of Satan who is called in the Bible, “the prince and power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience.” – Ephesians 2:2

Satan’s kingdom is called the kingdom of darkness, but God’s kingdom is a Kingdom of light. That is why, when we do wrong things, our hearts feel heavy and sad, but when we do good things our hearts feel light and glad. Every sin makes the heart a little heavier till sometimes, before a boy or girl is very old, they already have a dirty heart; and God has said (in Ezekiel 18:4b), “The soul that sinneth, it shall die.” (eternally), and that means eternal punishment.

Now look at the picture of a dirty heart real close and what do you see? A serpent. The very first name given to Satan in the Bible is the serpent. You know a serpent hides in the dark and tries to keep out of sight if possible; and though Satan tempts us to sin, he doesn’t want us to recognize him.

When our outer garments become unclean, Mother washes them with soap and water. But what can wash away a dirty sinful heart and make it clean again?

Here is the good news. God so loved boys and girls, and all the people of the world, that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth on Him, should not perish (eternally) but have everlasting life. – John 3:16

It was a wonderful day for sinners when God sent His Son Jesus Christ down into this world to die Himself in our stead, to take our eternal punishment, so that we could not only be free from the penalty of our sins, but have everlasting life.

We could never wash our hearts clean with soap and water, but when we believe on Jesus Christ, confessing our sins, and receiving Him as our very own personal Saviour, God says in John. 1:7-9, “The blood of Jesus Christ cleanseth from all sin...If we confess our sins He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.”

The dove is a type of the Holy Spirit. See what happens when we receive Jesus Christ as our personal Saviour, and God’s Holy Spirit comes into our hearts to abide. See how the old serpent makes a quick getaway, because he cannot bear light and exposure. And the darkness goes out of our hearts, too, when Jesus takes over in our lives, and we walk in the light of His word and try every day to be true to Him. I wonder how many of you know the song:
